SCREEN DISPLAY

This is divided into 4 parts:

1. The box on the left, on the top status line contains the number of extra lives left.
2. The box on the right, on the top status line contains the map of the rooms visited.
3. The middle of the status line contains the amount of dynamite collected (left) and the number of fireworks collected. The barrels indicate 8 sticks of dynamite.
4. The play area.

OBJECTIVE

To suceed you must blow up the Houses of Parliament. To accomplish this you must collect the special firework hidden in one of the rooms and take it to the room where all the barrels are stored. When the firework is lit, the game is completed. Guy will need his sticks of dynamite to blow up the building, but can use them to kill the creatures that roam around. There are more sticks lying around, but Guy runs the risk of losing lives collecting them.

FIREWORKS

The fireworks strewn around are for Guy's use, but there are not many and some perform special effects. Indiscriminate use of fireworks can make it impossible to get to the outer reaches of the building, thus completing the game.
