THE GAME

The year 1997 witnessed an unprovoked attack on Earth by a people unknown, our primitive 'Star Wars' defences were quickly overwhelmed and the Earth's population enslaved.

The survival of the human race rested in the hands of a research team hidden in the subterranean moon base. After extensive experimentation, they produced a range of fighter craft called Pulse Fighters. They became known as the Gunstar Fleet; their mission – the destruction of the alien forces and the liberation of the Earth.
