CONTRAPTION

An extravaganza of madcap lunacy as the crazy professor feverishly searches for the golden apples to feed his zany Contraption!

Enter his zany world and explore the weird and wonderful rooms of his mansion. Experience some of the best graphics ever seen on the Amstrad, and feverishly search for the golden apples which feed his wonderful invention.

Encounter poisonous plants, bouncing bombs, pumping pistons, devious devils, swooping spiders, diving dodos, sneaky snowmen, plunging platforms, jiving jellyfish... in fact, you name it and it's here!

Contraption combines a cartoon-like graphic quality with gameplay that is devilishly difficult and contagiously addictive. This is what the critics say...

"Just about the prettiest graphics I've ever seen on the Amstrad... a very attractive and very tough platform game." Amstrad Action.

"Although just a simple platform game at heart, Contraption has to be the most sophisticated of its type... The Graphics are truly outstanding." Amtix!
