HOWARD THE DUCK

Quack-fu to the rescue. You'll be provided with one jet pack. One ultralite. And one neutron-disintegrator. Why? Because you'll need them.

More action than the average duck sees in a lifetime. But then, how many ducks do you know who smoke cigars?

Game created by Troy Lyndon, Scott Orr, Harald Seeley, Doug Barnett and John Cutter.

What if your two best friends suddenly disappeared?

What if they were being held prisoner in an active volcano by a dark overlord?

What if to save them you had to jump over quicksand. Cross treacherous rivers. Fight off an army of mutants. Brave high winds in an ultralite aircraft. Parachute into the mouth of a volcano. Do battle with the Dark Overlord. And, somehow, stop the volcano from erupting?

Got it figured out?

Now, what if you were a duck...?
