BY FAIR MEANS OR FOUL COMPETITION

How To Enter

If you become the World Champion, you can enter the competition. To enter the competition, you should write to us describing what occurred in the game when you became the World Champion and informing us of the password/codeword that was given.

The Prizes

On 30th April 1989, draws will be made from all of the correct entries received. A separate draw will be made for each of the following four sections: Amstrad entries; BBC/Electron entries; Commodore entries; Spectrum entries. The winner of the draw in each section will receive a superb boxing trophy, a cheque for £50 and a congratulatory certificate signed by Barry McGuigan. Ten runners-up in each section will each receive a congratulatory certificate signed by Barry McGuigan.

Rules

1. The closing date for receiving entries to the competition is 30th April 1989.
2. Entries will only be accepted if received on a valid BY FAIR MEANS OR FOUL competition card. Photocopies of this card are not acceptable.
3. All entries must clearly indicate the type of computer used and should give the sender's name, address and age.
4. The company's decision is final and no correspondence can be entered into.
5. The competition is not open to the employees of Superior Software Ltd, the authors of BY FAIR MEANS OR FOUL, their agents or their families.
